

43rd Conference on Reading, Literacy and Learning:

Achieving Equity in Literacy

Saturday, November 13th

Special Hybrid Set-Up for 2021!

Attend this year either In-Person or Virtually

Woodlynde School

445 Upper Gulph Road, Strafford, PA 19087

Register at PBIDA.org

Keynote Speaker

Dr. Julie Washington

*Teaching African American
Children to Read: The Impact of Language
Variation*

Join us For Dr. Washington & more!

Hybrid Conference with two ways to attend:

- In-person attendance with access to 2 months of sessions through January 14, 2022. In-person exhibit hall, option for two in-person sessions that will not be recorded, opportunities to meet speakers and to network with others in attendance.
- Virtual attendance available on November 13, and ability to experience all recorded sessions through January 14, 2022. Connections to all sponsors/exhibitors' websites.

Servicing and streaming across Pennsylvania and Delaware!

Click Here to Register or on PBIDA.org